ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

BANGOR, MAINE, MONDAY, AUGUST 17, 1896.

Price Three Cents.

VOL. LXIII.-NO. 196.

They don't agree
— your pocket-book and your wash-board. One tries to keep your money—the other wastes it. You'd better consult your pocket-book, do your washing with Pearline, and put the wash-board out of the house. There's no room or place for it with Pearline, nor for any of its wearing-out, persons rubbing. You'll be doing your pocket-book a good turn, and help toward making it fatter and sleeker, if you'll do all your washing and cleaning with Pearline.

Milkmaid Brand Pearline

THE PUBLIC EXPECT
And have a right to expect, to be offered
SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS
To make them part with their money at this season of the year.

"-E-AS-ON"

Has always recognized and acted upon, this fact: The confidence which it enjoys from the buying public and its popularity is largely due to the fact that it always strives to fill the popular demand. The special values which we offer for this week, will, we are confident, still further increase the prestige of Bangor's most popular store.

THE NATIONAL GAME.
Bangors Lost at Brockton in Brilliant Contest.
Was One of the Most Exciting Ever Seen
There and Big Crowd Attended.
Fall Rivers Won From Portland and Augusta From Pawtucket.

Brockton, Aug. 15. The Brocktons stopped the victorious career of the Bangors today in a game which for fast fielding, sensational plays and general excitement surpassed anything in the memory of the greatest cranks in the city. Over 1,000 people saw the game, and went fairly crazy over it.

Both teams did brilliant work in the field, but Brockton outplayed the visitors. Brockton contributed three great double plays at critical times. Wheeler struck out eight men, but could not keep the hits so well scattered as Magers, who pitched beautiful ball. The score:

Brockton	Bangors
Runs, 10	Runs, 7
Hits, 15	Hits, 12
Errors, 2	Errors, 1
Left on base, 8	Left on base, 6

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY.
Temporary Insanity Led to Frightful Deaths.
New York Boarding House Keeper Murdered His Wife on Sunday
Take Other Lives.

New York, Aug. 16. A double tragedy was enacted on the top floor of the house, 145 West 10th street, concluded by Alvin Dickman and wife, early this morning. Dickman, who was about 35, and whose appearance seemed that he was refined and educated, in a fit of temporary insanity, brought about by business worries, killed his wife, Adeline, by shooting her through the heart.

After shooting his wife Dickman hid in the room, and when the police arrived he was found by Dickman, the latter finding a number of shots at him.

CAMPAIGN OPENED.
Great Gathering of Republicans at Columbus.
Able Speeches by Senator John Sherman, Ex-Governor Foraker and Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, of New York, on the Issues.

Columbus, O., Aug. 15. Republicans poured into this morning from all parts of Ohio to attend the opening meeting of the Republican State and National campaign. The streets were filled with a throng of cheering clubs and banners and the scene was as animated as one witnessed in the closing weeks of a Presidential campaign.

At the coming Republican election the issue will be whether any holder of silver bullion may deposit it with the United States and have it counted for his benefit and without cost to him into silver dollars each of the weight of 42 1/2 grains.

A TERRIBLE WRECK.
Excursion Train Left Track Near Pueblo, Colorado.
Engineer and Fireman Killed and Twenty Passengers Injured.
Caused the Disaster.

Pueblo, Col., Aug. 16. The second section of the train went bound on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad was wrecked yesterday afternoon eight miles west of Pueblo.

The train was carrying seventy excursionists. Near the little town of Vegas the engine left the track and the engine turned completely over. Engineer Charles Davenport and Fireman W. F. Repper were killed.

It is stated that the accident was caused by the spreading of the rails, due to the intense heat.

MET AWFUL DEATH.
Balloontist Made His Thousandth and Last Ascent.
Parachute Failed to Open and Descended With Frightful Speed.

Del Rio, Tex., Aug. 16. Prof. G. B. Bensen, a balloontist, was killed here today. In descending with his parachute he dropped into the forks of a tree and his neck was broken.

Another Aeronaut Killed. Dallas, Texas, Aug. 16. Prof. G. B. Bensen, a balloontist, was killed here today. In descending with his parachute he dropped into the forks of a tree and his neck was broken.

A MINIATURE CYCLONE.
Havoc in Omaha as a Result of the Terrible Storm.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 16. This city was last night treated to a miniature cyclone, which played havoc with the city. The storm broke down shade trees, demolished fences, chimneys and outbuildings. About two inches of rain fell in half an hour, and the downpour was accompanied by hail. The wind gauge at the weather station showed 60 miles an hour.

Every building in the business portion of the city having northern exposure suffered from the tempest. The Mulholland Hotel was nearly a whole wall of glass. The Colton house, at East Omaha was entirely destroyed and the fences and grass land in the fields were scattered in several places, but as far as can be ascertained no one was killed.

PITTSFIELD RACES. Edmund Wood, 2:16 Class—Good Contest.

Pittsfield, Me., Aug. 15. There was a fine day and there was a large attendance at the races at the Union racing park. The first on the card in the forenoon was the 2:30 class, trot and pace, purse $200, with 11 starters, won by L. H. Ryder, of Oldtown. Maud Pitcher second; Twilight Wilkes third. Best time 2:17 1/2.

The second event was the 2:24 class, trot and pace, purse $100. Starking, by Tom King, J. A. McLean, of Augusta, won the first, second and last; Maud W. second; C. H. Nelson third. Best time 2:32 1/2.

his position. That will be arranged to-day.

There is a good deal of friction in the Democratic National Committee in getting its campaign strategy.

There can be but one interpretation placed on this decision of the committee to keep Bryan out of this State. After looking the ground over, the committee has evidently reached the conclusion that Maine will be loyal to the country now as it was when another poll threatened it back in the sixties. The visit of Bryan could not change the verdict, but on the other hand his appearance in the State followed by a decisive Republican majority would simply emphasize its effect upon the country at large. The Republicans have every reason to feel encouraged by this manifest feeling of alarm on the part of the Bryan managers, and it should stimulate them to renewed effort from now until the ballots are deposited on election day. Keep up the good work. Leave no opportunity unimproved where individual effort will count in support of the principles of sound government. Maine's verdict ought to be a glorious one. It will be if every man does his duty in the missionary field now open to him.

His Real Calibre.

There was one place where the platitudinous speech of Candidate Bryan caused surprise on the occasion of his nomination. That was at his home in Nebraska where he is known. Mr. Bryan has developed a fictitious reputation as a great orator in the outside world where his methods are not familiar to the people, but out in Nebraska they have taken his life measure. The Courier published in Lincoln, the home of the candidate, says:

"As a matter of fact, Mr. Bryan never made an impromptu speech in his life—at least none that attracted any attention. It is known that he spent weeks and months on his two great speeches in Congress, and it has been shown that the essential features of his Chicago speech have been copied by him in many previous speeches. Whenever he has appeared in this State he has had ample time in which to prepare himself, and he has always acquitted himself well."

But since the Chicago convention there has been an unusual demand upon Mr. Bryan. In his boyish zeal to take his nomination out and show it to the rest of the world, he has been obliged to prepare addresses as a matter of course. They have been in numerous and various places, and he has been seen for the last two weeks with the mask removed, and found in place of what appeared to be a skillful actor a very ordinary man."

Free Silver Bubble Pricked.

The New York Herald of Friday says:

"Something dropped yesterday with a dull thud. It was heard all over the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the lakes to the Gulf. The tremor of the impact was felt to the ends of the civilized world. It was the bottom of the free silver campaign in the East of William J. Bryan that had dropped. It had dropped out."

The signs of the times were, all so distinct as to prevent any mistake being made as to what they meant. The failure of Mr. Bryan to arouse any genuine enthusiasm, the fizzle of the reception at the Windsor Hotel, where a few hundred persons shook hands with Mr. and Mrs. Bryan and Treasurer St. John had to jump around to drum up a reception, the realization that in his speech he had made no substantial argument in support of his "free silver" opinion, the fact that the party of silver with gold at the ratio of 16 to 1 could be maintained—these things indicated that Mr. Bryan had taken a fatal step when he flaked his reputation as a Boy Orator in Madison Square Garden.

Not so, Mr. Bryan's measure had been taken at last. There was the greatest rally to securities that has been known since the Chicago Convention. Love, fear, concluded that this man could never reach the Presidency, and once more began to rally. There was a rise of from one to four points all along the list.

The pricking of the free silver bubble by the chief blower of them had a most disheartening effect on the managers of the Bryan campaign. They were the bluest set of men seen here in many days. They had expected a justification and a rise in the market.

To add to the complications the free silver managers quarrelled among themselves. They quarrelled over Bryan's movements. Mr. Bryan insisted on going to Maine to visit Sewall and make speeches. He was overruled, and it has been decided that he will not go to Maine. He will remain in the East not far from New York for a week or ten days, and will then go West to receive the silver party's nomination.

The managers also quarrelled over Treasurer St. John and his headquarters in the Bartholdi Hotel. Some wanted Mr. St. John to resign. It was finally decided to take all the headquarters away from the Bartholdi except Mr. St. John's headquarters as treasurer. This will leave nothing of the amazing ride show that has held forth there but Mr. St. John and the Teal bureau for "disinfected" Republicans.

There is also a serious quarrel over the location of headquarters. Chicago is being encouraged. The Democratic here will get back headquarters. There will be a document headquarters in Washington called "main" headquarters and main headquarters in New York called "branch" headquarters.

The honest money Democrats gave a quick answer to Mr. Bryan by issuing a call for a meeting of their State Committee to call a convention to send twenty-two delegates to the third ticket convention which meets in Indianapolis September 2.

The arrangements for the second money meeting in Madison Square Garden next Wednesday night, when Bourke Cockran will answer Bryan, went forward satisfactorily. There is a great rush for tickets for this meeting already.
